I chose Victoria Chen for my EB1 A case. She was excellent, knowledgeable and hard working, deals with your case personally, responds to queries and my EB1 A petition was processed in a very short time. She was also instrumental in guiding me with the Adjustment of status and I obtained the green card within a span of two months. I would highly recommend her.

You will not get an electronic notification for your biometrics appointment. The letter will come through the USPS mail.

An update, my status changed yesterday to I485 approved and green card ordered for production and so did for the 3 of my dependents. I am happy it worked out without any hassles. Thanks a lot for your support. Good luck to all of you out here in the forum.

Jumpin777, I found out yesterday my status changed to: I-485 was approved and green card has been ordered for production. You were right as visa numbers were available for EB1A, they approved greencard before EAD/AP for me. The rest of the family got EAD/AP on 11 May and Green card production ordered on 12 May. I am really happy it worked out nicely in the end.

TSC

RD:4/04/12

ND:4/06/12

All my three dependents got EAD/AP cards yesterday after it was approved on 5/5/12.

I applied but my case cannot be found on line.

Any one in my shoes?

Jumpin777: EVL is Employment Verification Letter and it should be submitted when you file I-485.

You will have your photos taken in the ASC. You do not have to take any photos with you. You have to take a photographic ID with you.

Although, any state driver's license would suffice, if I were you, I would take my passport with me.

Panubhi:
As suggested by DG333, it would be the most sensible thing to do, say if you dont get the passport back by the evening before the appt.
